

AUTHOR PROFILES

Jiaxiang Hu is a tenured professor of law at Shanghai Jiaotong University KoGuan Law School (China). He was awarded his B.A., M.A. in Hangzhou University (China), MPhil in law in Zhejiang University (China) and Ph.D. in law in the University of Edinburgh (UK). He has published over one hundred academic papers and authored and coauthored over ten books. Some of the papers were published at those prestigious journals like Journal of International Economic Law and Journal of World Trade. Some books were published by Brill Publisher, Wolters Kluwer, intersentia Cambridge-Antwerp-Portland. Professor HU is team leader of several national and international research projects. His research interests include public international law, international economic law, WTO law. He can be contacted at: jxhu@sjtu.edu.cn.

Dapo Wang is a Ph.D. candidate of KoGuan Law School at Shanghai Jiaotong University (China). He holds his B.A., LL.B. in Southwest University of Political Science & Law (China), LL.M. in international economic law from China Foreign Affairs University and LL.M. in Law & Finance from Leiden University (The Netherlands). His areas of interest include Public International Law, International Dispute Settlement, International Financial Law and Securities Law. He can be contacted at: wangdapo@sjtu.edu.cn.

Wei Shen is KoGuan Distinguished Professor of Law at Shanghai Jiaotong University Law School. Professor Shen got Ph.D. (LSE), LL.M. (Cantab), LL.M. (U. Michigan), and LL.M. & LL.B. (ECUPL). He joined the New York Bar and was practicing law for a decade, mostly in Hong Kong on foreign direct investment, private equity and M&A. His main research interests include financial regulation, corporate governance, international investment law and commercial arbitration. He has published more than 200 articles in Chinese and English journals. Professor Shen has authored many books including Chinese Business Law - Narrative and Commentary (Wolters Kluwer 2016) and edited book, Private Law in China and Taiwan - A Law and Economics Approach (2016). His article was cited by the Supreme Court of Singapore. He is an arbitrator with London Court of International Arbitration, Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, Singapore International Arbitration Centre, Korean Commercial Arbitration Board (International), Shanghai International Arbitration Centre, Shanghai Arbitration Commission, China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, Shenzhen International Court of Arbitration, among others.

Shuping Li is a Ph.D. candidate in law at the University of Hong Kong. Her research areas include international investment law, financial law and economic analysis of law, with a special interest in the regulation of Fintech and financial markets. She obtained her LL.M. from the University of Cambridge in commercial law as a Cambridge Trust scholar and LL.B. from Shandong University. Previously she worked as a research intern at the Cambridge Centre for Alternative Finance for regulatory innovation programs. She is qualified to practice law in China as well as a certified written English translator. She may be contacted at: sl944@connect.hku.hk.

Marina Timoteo is Full Professor of Comparative Private Law at the University of Bologna, lecturing Comparative Private Law, Law of the Asian Countries, Law and Business in China. She is the Coordinator of the Ph.D. Program of “European Law” at the University of Bologna and Visiting Professor at the China University of Political Science and Law, Beijing (China). Professor Timoteo is co-founder and member of the Europe China Law Studies Association where she was member of the Board from 2008 to 2017. She is Associate Member of the International Academy of Comparative Law and Member of the General Assembly of the China-EU School of Law. Marina Timoteo has served as advisor and expert in Italian and European committees on Sino-Italian and Sino-European relations. Her research interests are contemporary Chinese law (legal system and legal process, private law, intellectual property, environmental law, digital innovation and law), Europe-China legal relations, comparative law methodology.

Barbara Verri is a research fellow at the Department of Legal Study of the University of Bologna. In 2015, she was awarded Ph.D. in Comparative and European Legal Studies at the University of Trento. Her main research fields cover comparative private law, environmental law, sustainable development, and legal translation. She is the author of several scientific publications in books and law journals. Dr. Verri was invited as a speaker in national and international conferences, workshops and training courses. She has been working as a qualified attorney in Italy since 2013. Her main area of practice is business and commercial law. She may be contacted at: barbara.verri@unibo.it.

Yukai Wang is a research fellow and lecturer at Shanghai International College of Intellectual Property (SICIP) of Tongji University of China. He got a Ph.D. in Law, Science and Technology at the University of Bologna under the auspices of the Erasmus Mundus Program of EU, and a Ph.D. in IP Law from Renmin University of China. His academic interests are IP Law and interdisciplinary research of law and technology. Dr. Wang's recent academic focus is on the duty of new technology providers. He is the author of many academic articles and in charge of academic projects. He is teaching legal methodology, Chinese law, and IP law for Chinese and international students at SICIP. He may be contacted at: wangyukaichina@163.com.

Jianghao Xia is a lecturer of family law at China University of Political Science and Law. She received her Ph.D. from Peking University, China. She is also a member of the Research Institute of Marriage and Family Law of China Law Society. Her research interests is in family law including family property, marital agreements, the rights of children and the rights of women, etc. Dr. Xia has published a lot of academic articles in many prestigious journals and participated in various research projects. She may be contacted at: jianghao.xia@pku.edu.cn.

Aleksandr Alekseenko is an Associate Professor at the Chair of Commercial Law of Saint-Petersburg University. He is a member of the Association of Lawyers of Russia, member of the Public Council under the Ministry for Development of the Russian Far East and Arctic, and an independent expert accredited to conduct anti-corruption expertise of regulatory legal acts. Dr. Alekseenko received his LL.M. from the Far Eastern Federal University and a Ph.D. in law from the Ural State Law University (Yekaterinburg). He also studied Chinese language at the Linyi Normal University. His expertise covers International Investment Law, Legal Regulation of digital Financial Assets, Russian Company Law, and Chinese Business Law. He is principal investigator and participant of projects funded from Russian Foundation for Basic Research. He may be contacted at: alekseenko.a.p@gmail.com.

Hameed has over 19 years of aggregate experience in teaching, litigation, and judicial service. He was awarded Ph.D. in Law from the University of Glasgow (UK) and LL.M. from the University of Sheffield (UK). He is currently Director/Associate Professor at School of Law and Policy at the University of Management and Technology, Punjab, Lahore, Pakistan. Dr. Hameed started his career as a Civil Judge in 2000 and served as Director Judicial Academy Punjab. He also worked as Senior Assistant Professor at Bahria University Islamabad. His name is on the panel of advocates representing SNGPL and NBP. His research interests is in Public International law, Jurisprudence, ADR and Law of Evidence. Dr. Hameed has attended roughly 20 academic conferences as a presenter and served as Vice Chairman, Legal Education Committee of the Lahore High Court Bar Association. He can be reached at: usman.hameed@umt.edu.pk

Kashif Imran Zadi is currently working as Assistant Professor at the University of Management and Technology, Lahore, Punjab, Pakistan. He was awarded his LL.B. in 2009 and LL.M. in 2011 from Punjab University Law College, Lahore, Pakistan. He joined Guanghai Law School at Zhejiang University, Hangzhou, China in 2017 and completed SJD in Chinese Law. He worked as an advocate at Lahore High Court, Lahore, Pakistan. Professor Zadi taught

Procedural Laws and Law of Evidence in the University of the Punjab from 2014 to 2017. His research interests include International Trade and Investment Law. His recent research focuses on the Dispute settlement System for CPEC and the legal issues associated with the Belt and Road Initiative. He may be contacted at: kashif.zadi@umt.edu.pk

Stuart Malawer holds a Ph.D. from the Dept. of International Relations at the University of Pennsylvania. He has a J.D. from the Cornell Law School and a Diploma from The Hague Academy of International Law (Research Centre). He also studied at the Harvard Law School and St. Peter's College at Oxford University. Professor Malawer was a member of the Virginia Governor's trade missions to China, India, and Japan. Dr. Malawer was awarded the Hardy Cross Dillard Award by the Virginia State Bar, in recognition of serving as Chairman of its International Practice Section and Special Editor of the Virginia Lawyer. Most recently, he published articles on the US-China trade litigation, Trump's trade policies, and cybersecurity. Recent books have included Trump and Trade-Policy and Law (2021), Global Trade and International Law (2012), U.S. National Security Law (2009), and WTO Law, Litigation and Policy (2007). Professor Malawer served as the Director and Founder of the Graduate International Transactions Program at George Mason University (a master's program in international affairs). He was subsequently named the Distinguished Service Professor of Law & International Trade, as well as the Director of the Oxford Trade Program. This program was held annually in partnership with St. Peter's College at Oxford and Geneva. The GMU Alumni Association named Professor Malawer the Distinguished Faculty Member of the Year. He was a gubernatorial appointee to the Virginia Economic Development Partnership and recently to the Virginia International Trade Committee. He may be contacted at: StuartMalawer@msn.com

Daile Xia is currently an Assistant Professor of Shanghai University of Finance and Economics (SUFE) School of Law. She finished her Ph.D. in Law at Peking University in July 2016, where she served as the editor-in-chief of Peking University Law Review for two years. She obtained her LL.B. from East China University of Political Science and Law and LL.M. from Columbia Law School and Peking University Law School. Before joining SUFE Law School, Dr. Xia was a postdoctoral research fellow at Tsinghua University School of Law and an adjunct researcher of the Center for Banking and Financial Law at the National University of Singapore.

Kuangran Li is Ph.D. Candidate at Shanghai Jiaotong University Law School. He went to East China University of Political Science and Law (LL.B. in international economic law), McGill University (LL.M. in comparative law) and Boston University (LL.M. in American law). His research focuses on international investment law and corporate governance. He may be contacted at: kr.lee@sjtu.edu.cn.

ERRATUM

Volume 6, Number 2

Page 379

Alekseenko Aleksandr P. & Popova Iuliia Yu. & Shishkina Olga E.

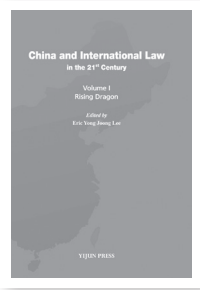

should be

Aleksandr P. Alekseenko & Iuliia Yu. Popova & Olga E. Shishkina

YIJUN PRESS

2021

China and International Law in the 21st Century

Book Description

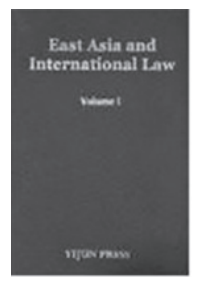

Publication date: December 1, 2013
ISBN : 979-11-85315-05-8

This book collects the academic papers of leading Chinese international lawyers regarding Security and Human Rights, Environment, Maritime Affairs, Economy and Trade, Civil Aviation and Outer Space Development, and Private International Law. Each article represents native Chinese viewpoints on highly topical regional and global affairs. As a whole, the book can thus be a well-designed blueprint to analyze and predict China's law and policy in various international legal issues.

Table of Contents

- Part I : Security and Human Rights
- Part II : Maritime Affairs
- Part III : Environment
- Part IV : Economy and Trade
- Part V : Civil Aviation and Space Development
- Part VI : Private International Law

East Asia and International Law (Vol.I~VII) Series

Book Description

Publication date: January 1, 2015
ISBN : 978-89-962457-8-0 (set)

East Asia and International Law is a cloth-bound compilation of volumes of the highly prestigious Journal of East Asia & International Law (SSCI/SCOPUS), one of the pre-eminent academic international law reviews published by the YIJUN Institute of International Law. The set of books (vols.1-5) consist of approximately one hundred legal articles and other valuable publications regarding regional affairs in East Asia. Articles are written by East Asian legal scholars who analyze on-going regional affairs, bilateral disputes, and mainstream international legal questions. These five volumes cover various legal topics of contemporary East Asia such as China-US conflicts, international trade and investment, ASEAN integration, South China Sea disputes, the North Korean Nuclear question, human rights, outer space development, climate change, among numerous other important issues. This set of volumes represents some of the finest research for those who wish to gain an understanding of international legal perspectives unique to East Asia. The highly-detailed annotations provide valuable research references for students, scholars or practitioners studying international law at a professional level.

For details, please visit: <http://press.yiil.org>

SUBSCRIPTIONS

CHINA AND WTO REVIEW is published semi-annually in Spring and Autumn. Subscription prices per annual volume are as follows:

	International	Domestic
Individual	1500RMB / 250USD / 200Euro / 三萬円	250,000 Won
Institutions	1500RMB / 250USD / 200Euro / 三萬円	250,000 Won
Single Issue	900RMB / 150USD / 120Euro / 壹萬七千円	150,000 Won

All prices include postage and handling.

To subscribe, you may call the Journal offices at +82-2-34360312, or email us : yijunpress@outlook.com / journal@yiil.org

You may transfer the subscription fee to the following bank account.

SC FIRST BANK

Account Number: 183-20-324404

Swift Code: SCBLKRSE

KWANG JANGDONG BRANCH

199-18 SAMSUNG CHERVILLE SUITE 1F

KJEU13-DONG, KWANGJIN-GU

SEOUL 143-203 KOREA

YIJUN PRESS (Eung-Gil LEE)

국내기관구독 비용은 연간 25만원입니다.

구독을 원하시는 경우, (사)이준국제법연구원에 전화 02-34360312 혹은

이메일 yijunpress@daum.com 혹은 journal@yiil.org로 연락주시면 안내하여드리겠습니다.

비용은 은행이체 혹은 지로로 가능하며 계좌번호는 SC 제일은행 183-20-324404(이준출판사/이응길)입니다

All subscriptions will be renewed automatically unless the subscriber provides timely notice of cancellation. Claims for unreceived issues will be honored for fifteen months from the date of publication. Requests for address changes and further subscription information should be directed to yijunpress@outlook.com or at the Journal office: +82-2-34360312.

Subscriptions for North America

Gaunt Building, 3011 Gulf Drive

Holmes Beach, FL 34217-2199

800-942-8683 (800-W.Gaunt3) Fax: 941-778-5252 Office: 941-778-5211

Email: info@gaunt.com

Single issues and back volumes are available from:

YIJUN Institute of International Law

8, Ahasan-ro 62-gil, Gwangjin-gu #402 (Taejin Suite)

Seoul 05047 Korea

+82-2-34360312

yijunpress@gmail.com

All subscriptions will be renewed automatically unless the subscriber provides timely notice of cancellation. Claims for unreceived issues will be honored for fifteen months from the date of publication. Requests for address changes and further subscription information should be directed to yijunpress@outlook.com or at the Journal office: +82-2-34360312.